5 Seconds Of Summer, Broken Pieces

I woke up in the place we started
Your clothes on the floor in that old apartment
I never thought you'd leave without a trace

Can't shake this sinking feeling
And I know you're not there and I'm barely breathing
Holding onto things I can't replace

I'm looking for a way to change my mind, don't walk away

Oh! tell me what we're fighting for
Its turned into an all out war
I'll find a way to fix this broken pieces and let go
I'm trying to find my way back home
If it takes until I'm skin and bones
I'll find a way to fix these broken pieces and let go

Our last words ringing in my head
I wish we'd take back all the things we said
I'm trying to find a way to yesterday

Talking in circles
Chasing our tails and wondering why we created this wasteland
I wish you wouldn't be so cavalier

I'm looking for a way to change my mind, don't walk away

Tell me what we're fighting for
Its turned into an all out war
I'll find a way to fix this broken pieces and let go
I'm trying to find my way back home
If it takes until I'm skin and bones
I'll find a way to fix these broken pieces and let go, let go, let go
Fix these broken and pieces and let go

We're fading out, we're all alone
It's what you wanted, I suppose
I can tell you feel the same
When you say you're looking for a way to change your mind
You walk away

Tell me what we're fighting for
Its turned into an all out war
We'll find a way to fix these broken pieces

Tell me what we're fighting for
Its turned into an all out war
I'll find a way to fix this broken pieces and let go
I'm trying to find my way back home
If it takes until I'm skin and bones
I'll find a way to fix these broken pieces and let go, let go, let go
Fix these broken and pieces and let go
