Alex Aiono, Trinidad Cardona, Does It Feel Like F

I got stars in my eyes and to see ion the dark just a word to the wise don’t tripping ober you heart cause it feels so fast when you’re going down all you see is a flash like a boxer in the first round tell me that you’re shock up like I am tell me how you feel like I need an answer when, when I;m with you does it feel like falling see we are back against the floor the say you never see it coming does it feel like falling?

does it feel like falling, falling for you?

does it feel like falling, falling for you?
does it feel like falling, falling for you?
does it feel like falling, falling for you?
does it feel like falling, falling for you?
does it feel like falling, falling for you?
does it feel like falling, falling for you?

I see stars in the sky and they’ll be there tomorrow will you be in my life in the many nights to follow cause ypo gp fast
when it’s going down all you feel is a crash it’s like lighting striking the ground
tell me how you feel like I need answer
