Agata Nizińska, Reason

Don't know where is and why
Oh, I don’t sleep at night
Cos I wake up, wake up, wake up

You're just a fantasy
Gotta get back to reality
Cos I wake up, wake up, wake up

When you touch me, I can't think
I keep imagining
That I got you all to myself
I forget you're with somebody else

I don't wanna be the reason why
You can never look her in the eye
That's not someone I gonna be
I just want it to be you and me but
There were promises you swore keep
Unless you finally tell her goodbye
I don’t wanna be the reason you lie

You say it's not a happy home
Oh, but it's still you home
You go to and leave me alone
(You know what I mean)

I feel empty when you sneaking around
And so empty when you're not around
Cos I miss you, wish you wouldn't go

When you touch me, I can't think
I keep imagining
That I got you all to myself
I forget you're with somebody else

I don't wanna be the reason why
You can never look her in the eye
That's not someone I gonna be
I just want it to be you and me but
There were promises you swore keep
Unless you finally tell her goodbye
I don’t wanna be the reason you lie
