Alan Cyprysiak, Can't Stop Loving You (feat. Eva

it’s been a long time since we know we realize that where we go we going nowhere even if you try even if sometime we think it’s fine

but I Can't Stop Loving You Can't Stop Loving You, no
and I still don’t know why we keep running into this
I Can't Stop Loving You
my heart is tearing apart but I still love you so much

[Eva Ekwa”]
all silent days whe we’re home that’s almost ever think we know can find you where you are when you stay behind you’re away looking into my eyeas

but baby there’s still a chance to come back in our arms even if ut hurts some rimes I still see not me but you just come back and let’s be one
