Blink 182, She's Out Of Her Mind

I said: Settle down, settle down everything is fine
Take your eyes off the floor
She said: No I'm not, no I'm not, no I'm not alright
I lost my head on the door

She's an antisocial
Antisocial
She's in dangerous

I'm in deep with this girl but she's out of her mind
She said: Babe I'm sorry but I'm crazy tonight
She got a black shirt, black skirt and Bauhaus stuck in her head
I'm in deep with this girl but she's out of her mind

We all need something to live for
We all need something to live for

She said: I let her down, let her down I no longer dream of anything anymore
Said: I'm a know-it-all, know-it-all you make me want to scream
And threw herself on the floor

She's an antisocial
Antisocial
She's in dangerous

I'm in deep with this girl but she's out of her mind
She said: Babe I'm sorry but I'm crazy tonight
She got a black shirt, black skirt and Bauhaus stuck in her head
I'm in deep with this girl but she's out of her mind

She's not complicated
Can't be overstated at all
She's not complicated at all

I'm in deep with this girl but she's out of her mind
She said: Babe I'm sorry but I'm crazy tonight
She got a black shirt, black skirt and Bauhaus stuck in her head
I'm in deep with this girl but she's out of her mind

We all need something to live for
We all need something to live for
