Ariana Grande, Everytime

back to you /6x
i go back to you
back to you everytime

I get tired of your no-shows you get tired of my control they keep telling me to let go but I don’t really let go when I say I so I keep giving people blank stares I’m si different when you’re not there it’s like something out of Shakespeare because I’m really not here when you’re not there

I’ve tried to fight our energy but everytime I think I’m free you get high and call on the regular I get weak and fall like a teenager why, why does God keep bringing me back to you?

I get drunk, pretend that I’m over it self-destruct, show up like an idiot why, oh why does god keep bringing me back to you?

i go back to you

just when I get on a new wave boy, you look at me and I slip outta my lace they keep calling me a head0case cause I can’t make a good case why we can’t change

I’ve tried to fight our energy

why, why does God keep bringing me back to you?
why, oh why does god keep bringing me back to you?

i go back to you ‘8x
I go back to you everytime
i go back to you ‘8x
I go back to you everytime
