Charli XCX, Blame It On Your Love (feat. Lizzo)

I blame it on
I blame it on
I blame it on
I blame it on every time you get too close

I run, I run away
every time you say the words
I don’t know what to say
back to beginning really wish that I culd change
I do! /3x

I blame it on your love
Everytime I fuck it up
I blame it on your love, I do!
I blame it on your love
I can’t help /2x
I blame it on your love, I do!
I blame it on your love
Everytime I fuck it up
I blame it on your love, I do!
I blame it on your love
I can’t help /2x
I blame it on your love, I do!

sorry, i am a little cared but no one ever really cared I took you for granted just a big misunderstanding I jus want to spend the night sleeping in tour bed tonight or watch a little TV I love it when you need me

every time you get too close
I run, I run away
every time you say the words
I don’t know what to say
back to beginning
really wish that I culd change
I do! /3x

I blame it on your love
Everytime I fuck it up
I blame it on your love, I do!
I blame it on your love
I can’t help /2x
I blame it on your love, I do!
I blame it on your love
Everytime I fuck it up
I blame it on your love, I do!
I blame it on your love
I can’t help /2x
I blame it on your love, I do!

[Lizzo:]

blame it on the juice

I;m give you onc chance to fall in love give you one chance, don’t fuck ithis up I;m tryna catch millions

I ain’t tryna catch feelings

Everytime I fuck it up
I blame it on your love, I do!
I blame it on your love
I can’t help /2x
I blame it on your love, I do!
