

5 Seconds Of Summer, Want You Back

can't help you but wondering if this is the last time that I'll see your face is it tears or just the fucking rain?
wish I could say something Somethink that doesn't sound insane But lately I don't trust my brain you told me I won't ever chnge so I just say nothing

no matter when I go
I always gonna want you back
no matter how long you're gone
I always gonna want you back
I know that you know
I will never get over you
no matter when I go
want you back

I remember the freckles on your back And the way that I used to make you laugh coz you know every morning I waka up I still reach for you
I remember the roses on your shirt
When you told me this would never work
You know
Even when I say I;ve moved on I still dream for you

no matter when I go
I always gonna want you back
no matter how long you're gone
I always gonna want you back
I know that you know
I will never get over you
no matter when I go
want you back
