Alex Parker, Synchronize (feat. Alexandra Stan)

This ain't no sex tape
This is love in the making
Nobody has to see
Your body in my naked eyes
I'm reaching for your lips
It feels like slow motion
It's been so long since you and I
Synced in emotions.

Let's sync sync synchronize, our emotions
Sync sync synchronize, our emotions
Sync sync synchronize, in motion
Sync sync synchronize, our emotions

Emotions
Our emotions

This ain't no bad crime
This is all I've been waiting
Somebody I could really
Talk to in this boring life
You showed me how to swim
So lost in devotion
It's been so long since you and I
Synced in emotions.

This ain't no sextape
This is love in the making
Nobody else can show me heaven
Like I'm on cloud nine
We catch the speed of light then
Back to slow motion
It's been so long since you & I
Synced in emotions
