Christine & The Queens, Eyes of a Child

She will come whenever i call her
But she'll lave as soon as i sigh
She's got the eyes of a child
Ans she'll love without any sorrow
For she just aims for the heart
She's got the eyes of a child

She'll forgive and she'll be forgiven
She's got the eyes of a child

And i love her because she's so brave
And i hate her because she fights
She's got the eyes of a child
What she wants
She always seem to have
What se hates
She just let it dies
She's got the eyes of a child

She forgot but i won't forget her
She's got the eyes of a child

What i sit, taht's so bright about her?
That made me so full of lies
She's got the eyes of a child
I recall i've never felt that young
She stole what's left of my heart
She's got the eyes of a child

I wish that i never met her
She's got the eyes of a child

And i wish i never met her
She's got the eyes of a child
