Beyoncé, Love Drought

10 time out of 9
I know you're trying
But 9 time outta 10
I know you're trying
So I'm to be fair
And you're trying to be there and to care
And you're caught up in your permanent emotions
All the loving I've been giving goes unnoticed
It's just floating in the air
Lookie there
Are you aware you're my lifeline
Are you tryna kill me?
If I wasn't me
Would you steel feel me?
Like on my worst day
Or am I not thirsty, enough?
I don't care about the lights or the beams
Spend my life in the dark for the sake of you and me
Only way to go is up
Skin thick
Too thought

Coz you and me could move a mountain
You and me could calm a war down
You and me could make it rain nom
You and me could stop this love drought
