Alex Sampson, BLIND

Just take a break I’m feeling broken
Too late for words unspoken
Don’t show up early morning

I can’t forget you
Erase you
I’m running out of time
To replace you
I chase you
Ignoring all the signs
Cause I see you
And need you
To ruin my life

Even if I
Go blind tonight
You’re still stuck in my mind
Took the framing off the wall
But kept the pictures inside
Go and leave me for dead
Then come and bring me to live
An eye for an eye
Leaves the both of us
Blind

Too late to get some distance
Your touch is too persistent
You love with blurry vision

Even if I
Go blind tonight
You’re still stuck in my mind
Took the framing off the wall
But kept the pictures inside
Go and leave me for dead
Then come and bring me to live
An eye for an eye
Leaves the both of us
Blind

Oohh
Oohh
(Oh no no)
Leaves the both of us blind
Oohh
Oohh
(Oh no oh no)

I can’t forget you
Erase you
I’m running out of time
To replace you
I chase you
Ignoring all the signs
Cause I see you
And need you
To ruin my life

Even if I
Go blind tonight
You’re still stuck in my mind
Took the framing off the wall
But kept the pictures inside
Go and leave me for dead

Then come and bring me to live
An eye for an eye
Go blind tonight
You’re still stuck in my mind
Took the framing off the wall
But kept the pictures inside
Go and leave me for dead
Then come and bring me to live
An eye for an eye
Leaves the both of us
Blind
