steppin’ out of grey zone, please can’t you mind your business while I shine wasted time on this 9 to 5 thing
hey boss,
show me the papers I resign

the way i feel leaving nothing behind me
I wanna be
I wanna

I amd looking to change the path and reach for desire
I wanna be
I wanna be
I wanna be

drop my guard
you will make me go far belied
I will always trust your smile all the times I’ve been falling a-part you told me
be the star
don’t let it hide

the way i feel leaving nothing behind me
I wanna be
I wanna

I amd looking to change the path and reach for desire
I wanna be
I wanna be
I wanna be
