Blake Shelton, Nobody But You (Duet with Gwen

Don’t have to leave this own to see the world ‘Cause it’s something that I gotta do I don’t wanna look back in thirty years and wonder who you’re married to wanna say it now, wanna make it clear for only you and God to hear when you love somebody they say you set ‘em free but that ain’t gonna work for me

I don’t wanna live without you
I don’t wanna even breathe
I don’t wanna dream about you
I wanna wake up whit you next to me
I don’t wanna go down any other road now
I don’t wanna love nobody but you lookin’ in your eyes now
if I had to die now
I don’t wanna love nobody but you

all the wasted days, all the wasted nights I blame it all on being young got no regrets ‘cause it got me here but I don’t wanna waste another one I been thinkin’ about what I want in my life it begins and ends the same if I had to choose what I could lose there would only be one thing

I don’t wanna live without you
I don’t wanna even breathe
I don’t wanna dream about you
I wanna wake up whit you next to me
I don’t wanna go down any other road now
I don’t wanna love nobody but you
lookin’ in your eyes now
if I had to die now
I don’t wanna love nobody but you

I wanna say it now wanna meke it clear
for only you and God to hear

I don’t wanna live without you
I don’t wanna even breathe
I don’t wanna dream about you
I wanna wake up whit you next to me
I don’t wanna love nobody but you
lookin’ in your eyes now
if I had to die now
I don’t wanna love nobody but you
