James Bay, Bad

i know it hurts that we don;t touch anymore it’s even worse because we built this from the floor it’s just as hard for me to know I might see you rund it’s just as hard for me to worry about reaching out the more I think about you the more I keep the ghost alive yeah, the more I think about you

the more I keep the ghost alive

I want you bad, but it’s done
I;m bleeding out
cause we can’t go on
I want you bad, till I shake it I want what we had but what’s broken don’t unbreak just when I’m ready to get over you you call me up and ten I cumble when you sat, you’re getting over us but the more I think about you the more I keep the ghost alive

yeah, the more I think about you
the more I keep the ghost alive

I want you bad, but it’s done
I’m bleeding out
cause we can’t go on
I want you bad, till I shake it
I want what we had
but what’s broken don’t unbreak and I won’t tell you what I want to I want to what I want to I’m falling through I can’t hide it but I learn to

I want you bad, but it’s done
I’m bleeding out
cause we can’t go on
I want you bad, till I shake it
I want what we had
but what’s broken don’t unbreak
