

Afrojack & David Guetta, Hero

Little girl
Only 17 years old
Life just got in the way
Don't know what to say

She's heard it all before
Lying on her bedroom floor
Thinking my life
Has to be worth more

She dreams of going
To New York City
Her heart's already there
But her head's
Fighting a war

Little girl
Only 17 years old
Little for a star
But it's just too dark
