Johnny Polygon, The Fall

(Hook)
Sometimes, the fall comes first
Get up
Get up
(It’s not the house that’s haunted, it's yourself)

(Verse 1)
Mind over matter
I don’t mind, it don’t matter
Bang bang, blood splatter
On my mom’s new carpet
Brand new apartment, renovated, renovated
Shout out to the world, I intimidated bitches
Regret half the girls that I penetrated, penetrated
Lyrically and physically, I demonstrated
Chivalry ain’t dead, you just told it it was thirsty
Worst thing that happened to your love life was the internet
Drown your phone, read a book and get a pet
You need some r-e-s-p-e-c-t, no disrespect
I can see the future on some Cleo shit
Got these white girls goin’ crazy on some PO shit
I am not the one, I’m not Neo
No-one played your game
That’s why they called you Neo-Geo
Got some blow from Mexico, baby
Because I only do drugs from the 80's

(Hook)
Sometimes, the fall comes first
Get up!

(Verse 2)
I am not what I am, I am a monster
People think I’m special but I’m just an impostor
I killed a man cuz he hurt my sister
He’s somewhere, probably don’t miss her
Fuck it! I’ll go to hell before I go to jail
I burn a bridge before I give a shit
And while I’m standing on it, I’ll take a piss
Cuz I’m serious bout my craziness
Have you ever believed in something?
For no reason other than wanting
To kill that everyday normalness
That’s still present, that kills legends
I think about death with every breath
Not sure what’s right, so what’s left?
That's a question, don’t answer all at once
The life is in the weed and the cancer’s in the blunts

(Hook)
Sometimes, the fall comes first
Get up!
And everyone’s responsible

(Bridge x2)
Mind over matter, guess I never mattered to you
Oh, mind over matter, guess I never mattered to you

(Outro)
Everyone's so predictable
Even me, Mister Despicable
Sometimes, the fall comes first
