Beth Orton, Wave

If I were a wave - you’d have caught me
If you were my light - I would fade
If you were the sea - you’d not turn your back on me
I’d shake your fury - right out off of me

I was crying out for you, before I ever knew
Crying out to you; breathe me in
/2x

If I am wave - come and catch me
If I am all wrong - make me right
When I am a sound, I was twisting out loud
Shake that fury right on out to see

I was crying out for you, before I ever knew
Crying out to you; breathe me in
/2x

And all in all what the sea forgets /2x
All in all try not to forget
To shake the fury right out off of me

And all in all let the sea forget /2x
All in all try not to forget
To shake the fury right out off of me
That you and I were always going to be
