Katy Perry, What Makes A Woman

Is it the way i talk sweet
The way my skin is soft
Or how i can be a bitch
And make you keep your fingers crossed

Is it the way that i praise you
The way that i please you
Or how fast i change my mind
And get scared that i might leave you

Could spend your whole life but you couldn’t
Describe what makes a woman
She’s always been a perfect mystery
Could spend your whole life but you couldn’t
Describe what makes a woman
And that’s what makes a woman to me

Is it the way i cut my hair and put no makeup on I feel mos tbeautiful doing what the fuck i want
Is it that my intuition is never really off
I need tissues for my issues
And band-aids for my heart

Could spend your whole life but you couldn’t
Describe what makes a woman
She’s always been a perfect mystery
Could spend your whole life but you couldn’t
Describe what makes a woman
And that’s what makes a woman to me

that’s what makes a woman to me i sit the way we keep the whole world turning in a pair of heels

that’s what makes a woman
