We know the world!

[Zara Larsson:]
I'll be there, be there for you

I know you got them big dreams you can show me yours if you want to they're beautiful we can look at them for hours surrender to their power

I see new worlds these visions they burn inside of me just out of touch but still close enough to be part of me I'll be there the day comes (A Brand New Day)
head up in the sunlight baby I'll be there when the day comes
(A Brand New Day)
show the world just who I can be
