Lewis Capaldi, Bruises

counting days

since my love up and dot lost on me and every breath that I've been taken since you left feels like a wast on my

I've been holding on to hop that you'll come back when you can find some peace cause every word that I've heard spoken since you left like an hollow street

I've been told
to get you off my mind but I hope I never lose the brouses that you left behind oh my lord,
oh my lord,
I need you by my side

there must be something in the water cause everybody it's getting colder and if only I could hold you you'd keep my head form going under maybe, i maybe ia'm just being blinded by the brighter side of what we had because it's over wll there must be something in the tides

I've been told
oh my lord,
oh my lord,
I need you by my side

it's your love I'ma lost in your love I'ma lost in
and I;m tired of being so exhausted
