Lil Peep, 16 Lines

Sixteen lines of blow and I'm fine
Break my bones, but act as my spine
Wonder who you'll fuck when I die
And if I tried to call, would you cry?
Please don't cry, you're wasting your time
Sixteen lines will make me feel fine
Ten years ago I went blind
I been on my own since age nine
Sixteen lines of blow and I'm fine
Break my bones, but act as my spine
I wonder who you'll fuck when I die
And if I tried to call, would you cry?
Please don't cry, you're wasting your time
Sixteen lines will make me feel fine
Ten years ago I went blind
I been on my own since age nine
I been on my own for two nights
I been in my zone, I've been high
Now she wonder why do I lie
I can't tell my wrongs from my rights
Is anybody out there? (Is anybody out there?)
Can anybody hear me? (Can anybody hear me?)
I hate it when you fake care (I hate it when you fake care)
Girl, I know you hear me (Girl, I know you hear me)
Is anybody out there? (Is anybody out there?)
Can anybody hear me? (Can anybody hear me?)
I hate it when you fake care (fake care)
Girl, I know you hear me
Sixteen lines of blow and I'm fine
Break my bones, but act as my spine
Wonder who you'll fuck when I die
And if I tried to call, would you cry?
Please don't cry, you're wasting your time
Sixteen lines will make me feel fine
Ten years ago I went blind
I been on my own since age nine
Is anybody out there? (Is anybody out there?)
