Little Mix, Going Nowhere

[Leigh-Anne]
1) Sick of you playing on that Xbox thing
You're never gonna get me with a diamond ring
Look at you so confused, no you don't have a clue
I bet you think you've got me good

[Jade]
So tell me when's the last time you changed that shirt?
Instead of sittin' here you should be going to work
Like I do, but you, you're don't and it's not cool
Time for me to move on, nothing I can do so

[All]
Ref.: Leave, you're not the boy you said you'd be
And it's so hard for me to breathe
How can I love you boy
If you're going nowhere, we're going nowhere
Bye, don't have the strength to see you cry
I'm tired of asking myself why
How can I love you boy
If you're going nowhere, we're going nowhere

[Perrie]
2) How am I supposed to look at you like that
When all you ever really do is hold me back
No more, for sure, it's you who's at the door
I think I should press delete
[Perrie & Jade]
And clear my history

[Jesy]
I got my ambitions yes I dream so big.
While I'm ticking boxes you'll be counting sheep.
So you, do you, and I'll be me.
Time for me to move on, nothing left to see so

[Al]
Ref.: Leave, you're not the boy you said you'd be
And it's so hard for me to breathe
How can I love you boy
If you're going nowhere, we're going nowhere
Bye, don't have the strength to see you cry.
I'm tired of asking myself why
How can I love you boy
If you're going nowhere, we're going nowhere.

[Leigh-Anne]
I'm sick of dragging you up, all you do is pull me down.
I wish you good luck, as of now now I ain't around.
See I can recollect every other rainfall but I stayed
You won't change, that's my only downfall.
Rude boy boy pull your trousers up
I ain't your bruv, huh, I deserve some respect
Are you a man or a mouse? You don't provide or protect,
Stay stuck in the mud, I'll be on to the next.

[All]
Leave, you're not the boy you said you'd be
And it's so hard for me to breathe
How can I love you boy
If you're going nowhere, we're going nowhere.
Bye, don't have the strength to see you cry
I'm tired of asking myself why
How can I love you boy

If you're going nowhere, we're going nowhere
Bye
Cry
Why
You're going nowhere, we're going nowhere
