Little Mix, Lightning

[Jesy]
I'd cross a desert and an ocean
To get away from the pain of your storm
But chase the center light, been running from your shadow
So that I could heal and I been there

[Leigh Anne]
That zig-zag shooting through my heart
That zig-zag hit me like a dart
Electricity, electricity
Oh, this love's tearing me apart
I been running like the light from the dark
Oh, electricity keeps on hitting me

Oh lightning strikes twice
And it burns like ice
I wish I didn't love you again
Oh lightning strikes twice
And it burns so nice
I wish I didn't love you
(But I do)
(But I do)

[Jade]
Those eyes, were looking down me gently
Your voice it serenades, and it sings to my heart
One kiss, turned the skies to gray
I'll never get away, no shelter from the rain

[Perrie]
That zig-zag shooting through my heart
That zig-zag hit me like a dart
Electricity, electricity
Oh, this love's tearing me apart
I been running like the light from the dark
Oh, electricity keeps on hitting me

[Jade]
Oh lightning strikes twice
And it burns like ice
I wish I didn't love you again
Oh lightning strikes twice
And it burns so nice
I wish I didn't love you
(But I do)
(But I do)

[Bridge]
Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh

Oh fortuna
Velut luna
Statu variabilis
Semper crescis
Aut decrescis
Vita detestabilis

Every time that I hear your name, oh
Baby all the pleasure, the pain

[Chorus]
Oh lightning strikes twice
And it burns like ice

I wish I didn't love you again
(But I do)
(But I do)

[Outro]
