Cardi B, Ring (feat. Kehlani)

ring, ring , ring , ring

you don’t hit me line no more
you don’t make it ring, ring, ring, ring I can’t keep this on the low want you to make it ring, ring, ring, ring should I call first?

I can’t decide
I want to
but a bitch got prode
the switchin’ up shit is what I can’t fuck you I’m feeling you but you hard to get in touch in, touch while and you ain’t hit me up in a while acting like you don’t know what number to dial you quiet
the that’s it
Ima throw in the towel cause a nigga only gon do what you allow you don’t want this gun smoke learn to text with your nose if your thumb broke I don’t care if we get into it and I stall on your ass but I still wake up from missed calls from your ass, nigga

want you to make it ring, ring, ring, ring

nah, nigga now you gon’ have to call me cause I’m looking at these messages they all me
acting like there ain’t niggas that want me let another nigga in your spot and you gon’ be hot nigga coffee you gon’ be sick to your hit me when you free
it’s emergency
call me 911
cause right now I’m out here tryna find someone to ring on my phone ring on my finger
you acting like you ain’t tryna do either what’s a good girl?
watch me turn diva
here goes my heart
I put it on speaker

you used to be on my line on my tick all the time love it when you make me feel like you don’t mind when I ain’t got time for ya you know I don’t go to my head I’m only here again in bed I just love to know you wanna spend time with me instead now you all caught up

you all couht up
abd you done left me alone you was all fed up ready for the next step wanna be on your own said I just miss you I just miss us baby all I know is
want you to make it ring, ring, ring, ring
