Gryffin, Body Back (ft. Maia Wright) who cares what the world’s gonna say cause you know there’s gonna say it anyway (and I know and I know that) who cares if they laugh at what we do? cause it’s only me and you that know the truth

(and I know and I know that)

middle finger to the sky they don’t know about you and i we’ve been rolling deeper than they’ll ever know even though I broke your heart no that won’t keep us apart baby, I know, I know, I’m not giving you up

if you want my lovin’ you got iy anytime you want it baby, bring your body back to me they can call me foolish and stupid don’t know why I do this
baby, bring your body back to me
I know, I know,
I’m not giving you up
(and I know and I know that)
I know, I know,
I’m not giving you up
if you want my lovin’ you got iy anytime you want it
baby, bring your body back to me

I know, I know,
I’m not giving you up
I know, I know,
I’m not giving you up

who cares what the world’s gonna think? cause you know they’re gonna think it anyway
(and I know and I know that) I love all the bad things that we do shut your mouth and put you rhands where I want you to
(and I know and I know that)

they don’t know about you and i
we’ve been rolling deeper than they’ll ever know
even though I broke your heart
no that won’t keep us apart
baby, I know, I know,
I’m not giving you up

if you want my lovin’ you got iy anytime you want it
baby, bring your body back to me
they can call me foolish and stupid
I know, I know,
I’m not giving you up
(and I know and I know that)
I know, I know,
I’m not giving you up
if you want my lovin’ you got iy anytime you want it
baby, bring your body back to me

I know, I know,
I’m not giving you up

I know, I know,
I’m not giving you up
