Hozier, Movement

i still watch you when you’re moving as if through water from the bottom of a pool you’re moving
without movement
when you move
I’m moved

you are a call to motion there’s all of you avert in perfect view like Jonah on the ocean when you move, I’m moved
when you move
I’m put to mind you’re all that I wanna be when you over ui could never define all that you are to me

so move me baby shake like the bough of a willow tree you do it naturally move me baby

you are the right of movement it’s reasoning made lucid and cool and I know it’s no important
when you move

you;’re Laster Young in leaping or Fred Astair in sequence honey, you, you’re Atlas in his sleeping
when you move, I can recall something that’s gone from me when you move, honey
I;m put in awe something so flawed and free
