Poppy, Choke

help, I am drowning
there’s nobody around me I need someone to save me can you come and take me?

help, I am choking
there’s liquid in my breathing I think I am sinking the oxygen is leaking

choke
choke
choke
choke

the demon has seen me he said : I am not leaving!
the angel is watching me knows he can’t stop me I’m guessing they’re testing me getting the best of me don’t know how long until they see the rest of me

choke
choke
choke
choke
choke
choke
choke
choke
choke

choke
choke
choke
choke

they don’t believe me
my heart isn’t beating they say I’m imagining
just make believing

the geometry I am seeing is leading me to frequencies in my chest and they’re teasing me

choke
choke
choke

now everything’s clearer i look at the mirror and laugh at the past in the face of the fear the angel is watching me laugh and he stops me to tell mw that the end is here!
transition completed
the demon’s defeated
he disappears into the smoke all systems are go
countdown

choke
choke
choke
choke
choke
choke
choke
choke
