Inna, Sober

my vision’s blurry and i am faded I don’t know where I’ll be waking up another night i am gonna fake it and I wonder

is it ever gonna stop?
will there ever be a chance
our hearts will cross
is it ever gonna stop?
will there ever be a chance
I won;t be lost

I just wanna get to know you when we’re sober
call you over
get you closer
I just really wanna take this roller coaster
to the sofa
baby, can I get to know you?

maybe I need something different cause I can’t even make it out I am feeling kinda distant

is it ever gonna stop?
will there ever be a chance

when we’re sober
baby, can I get to know you?
when we’re sober
