Richard Orlinski, Eva Simons, Heartbeat

Where is all this going
I don't wanna hold back
I don't wanna let you in

Rushing on a feeling
Chasing fireflies, I wish I was less impulsive

But really there's no reason
Why we live in fear of life
Even in the worst parts
There will always be a lie
Where there's a heartbeat sound
Where there's a heartbeat sound
Where there's a heartbeat sound

Just another night, we'll make it till the sunrise
Beaming like a heart of gold
Warm me up or break
I need a hand to take
Right now we're in the friend zone

But really there's no reason
Why we live in fear of life
Even in the worst parts
There will always be a lie
Where there's a heartbeat sound
Where there's a heartbeat sound
Where there's a heartbeat sound

(...)

I wanna be close to you
Cause it hurts being without you
I'm losing my mind
So give me a sign
