Derdian, Black Typhoon

Troghlor:
Hey demons, what are you doing there?
The dimensional gate is opening, prepare to assault that fucking Reign of Astar!

King Kargor:
We see a black abyss is piercing the sky
Like a dimensional gate
Something is telling me the time to fight will not wait
Troghlor’s armada is riding the sky
Devastating our life
All these centuries burning on fire!

Powerless we see the demon’s approach
Just one defense: our shield
But what can this new technology do against the arcane?
‘Cause no one expected they would come back home
All for the conquest of throne
Sons of Astar now destroy them all!

Troghlor:
You will crawl (you’ll crawl)
As the worms (as the worm)
As the eternal night on Astar will fall
Let’s go on (let's go on)
Precious horde (yes lord)
Never ending slaughter we bring!

As a huge black typhoon
We’ll overwhelm you soon
Your memory will come back alive!
In bitter tears you fall
You will regret to have been
So haughty to have prospered in this land

King Kargor:
Shining the light behind the demons above
Not a good omen!
Deploy the starfleet, infantry out of the shield!
At once!

Demons:
Troghlor master of the war
You will get the Astar's crown
Ooooooooooooooh

Troghlor:
There’s no time to waste now
The last time I approached your town
I Enjoyed It!
