Derdian, Dorian

Verse 1
And awakened from my lucid dream
I run out of my hut
I have to meet, I have to warn him of what is happening
Running of my squatter through the streets
Kissed by a temporary Sun
Anxiously I run to raise the alarm, I still don't believe!

Pre-Chorus
The King will know everything soon
He never wanted this to happen
The New Era will experience what this world should have forgotten!

Chorus
My friend it pains me
But I need to give you a tragic news
It's something none of us can imagine
Dust in our life is...
Is about to be lifted again
Deep in your heart you understand (I've already seen your hand)
Holding your red shining Scepter

Verse 2
I just learned the truth, they're coming back
Thirsty for arcane revenge
Troghlor's about to open the gates that keeps worlds divided
Kargor, King, we must prepare for war
You have to defend your world
Hold up your sword, repel the horde or Astar will fall!

Pre-Chorus
My friend looks at me in disbelief, ooh
Then jumps up and screams all his horror
The New Era will experience what this world should have forgotten!

Chorus
My friend it pains me
But I need to give you a tragic news
It's something none of us can imagine
Dust in our life is...
Is about to be lifted again
Deep in your heart you understand (I've already seen your hand)
Holding your red shining Scepter

Guitar Solo

Bridge
Cause we should have known they would have returned
It was only a matter of time
They are coming here destroying all
And to take now your grown
Cause we should have known they would have returned
It was only a matter of time
They are coming here destroying all
And to take now your grown

Pre-Chorus
My friend looks at me in disbelief, ooh
Then jumps up and screams all his horror
The New Era will experience what this world should have forgotten!

Chorus
My friend it pains me
But I need to give you a tragic news

It's something none of us can imagine
Dust in our life is...
Is about to be lifted again
Deep in your heart you understand (I've already seen your hand)
Holding your red shining Scepter
