Srbuk, Walking Out

who are you
what you really do when you have to fight the agony that’s aiming back at you
who are you
who you run to depend, defend, hope on can you function on your own

are you from those who will swallow down
the pain, disgrace
the sadness
when the one
you love so much
can take your soul
and break it

wait for /2x
what I waited for?
no, I’m done

walking out
whatever I’ve built
I’m gonna burn down
I’m walking out
you’re no more a king
cuz I was your crown

first you said
you would die for me
but in the end I was the one bleeding all alone
first you said
you kneeled, you swore you loved, you lived fro me how could you forget it all?

the pain, disgrace
the sadness
you love so much

whatever I’ve built
I’m walking out

walking out /2x
no crying out
no begging
at least , I feel proud

you knew that my heart wasn’t small but somehow you came and filled it all
