Jorja Smith, Goodbyes

how could we know tat there wouldn’t be tomorrow? no birds will sing but the bells will ring for you so far to go but you’ve already reached the light your new beginning chapters are written out for you down here they’re hurting from a broken heart

trying to figure out how this is real

cause they’re never coming back down they belong to the stars in the clouds Goodbyes good Times
LOVE was all for you iy out didn’t say your Goodbyes don’r worry, love will power through
they belong to the stars in the clouds

how do we grow it you’re not moving with us constantly dark time will move in our favor they’ll never know but they just keep on asking when we’re down here they’re hurting

from a broken heart

they belong to the stars in the clouds
Goodbyes good Times
LOVE was all for you

I am sorry that I never replied ho was I to know this would be our last goodbye we can’t took at the world tears in our eyes don’t cry /3x

they belong to the stars in the clouds
Goodbyes good Times
LOVE was all for you
