Dorian Electra, Man To Man

you know I am not straight but ima say it straight to you and look you in the face every time I talk to you I wanna be clear and not convolute I'll say what I mean I expect the same from you so you wanna play rough in the parking lot see you actin' tough, but I know you're not

we can take it outside scuffle in the streetlight I just really wanna fight with you

man to man
hand to hand
one on one
friend to friend
are you man enough to soften up?
are you to tough enough to open up?
you gotta let me in

you gotta be the bigger man you gotta take the higher ground you gotta put your fists away you gotta lay your weapons down

hand to hand
friend to friend
are you man enough to soften up?
