Dua Lipa, IDGAF

you call me all friendly telling me how much you miss me that’s funny, I guess you’ve heard my songs well, I’m too busy for your business go find a girl who wants to listen cause if you think I was born yesterday you have got me wrong

you say you’re sorry
but it’s too late now so save it, get gone, shut up cause if you think I care about you now well, boy, I don’t give a fuck

I remember that weekend when my best friend caught you creeping you blamed it all on the alcohol so I made my decision cause you made your bed, sleep in it play the victim and switch your position I’m though, I’m done so I cut you off

I don’t need your love cause I already cried enough I’ve been done
I’ve been moving on since we said goodbye
I cut you off
so you can try all you want your time is up I’ll tell you why

I see you get tryna to me
I see you begging on your knees boy, I don’t give a fuck so stop tryna get to me
Get, up from your knees Cause boy, I don’t give a fuck about you no, I don’t give a damn you keep reminiscing on when you were my man but I’m over you now you’re all in the past you talk all that sweet talk but I ain;t coming back Cut you off
