Vampire Weekend, Sunflower (ft. Steve Lacy)

Sunflower in the morning
Standing in the garden
All before you wake

no power can compel you
out info the daylight
let that evil wait

strange through upon the pillow
“What day demands a date?”
Well I don’t know

Sunflower in the evening
Standing in the garden
taking up that space

no power can compel you
out info the daylight

“What day demands a date?”
Well I don’t know
