Dua Lipa, Lost In Your Light (ft. Miguel)

Over and over
Waves of frightening feelings
Floating weightless
I’m willing
My will keeps bending and breaking

Honey!

Hold me, trust me
Let me ride in your love all night
Baby
Hold me, touch me
I wanna die in your love all night,

Lost in your light
I wanna stay right here all night, baby
Let’s get lost in the light, baby
I wanna stay right here all night, baby

Now, everything is vivid, vivid
Touch attempted with pleasure
Reckless, tangled, suspended
You want it all
Nothing wasted

Woman!

Hold me, trust me
Let me ride in your love all night
Baby
Hold me, touch me
I wanna die in your love all night,

Lost in your light
I wanna stay right here all night, baby
Let’s get lost in the light, baby
I wanna stay right here all night, baby

Midnight
Your eyes
Bitter wine
Conversations
You and me
Some money, pay
I don’t need a paycheck
One taste and I’m hooked on it
Don’t laugh
I know you want it
I’m addicted to your light
