Ella Henderson x Roger Sanchez, Dream On Me

You can dream
You can dream, dream dream, dream

take a breath close your eyes no, you’’’re not the only lonely one tonight the city’s awful quiet got me thinking about the memories of you and I i miss the feel of your body now i am laying here with nobody but in my fantasies i got you hgere with me i am wide awake but you’re sleeping hose butterflies you’re feeling catch me in your dreams, hay*
