Kroki, Underwater

part of me
will fall asleep
if you ever make my ghost
your prisoner

you should wake up underwater without breathe and for a second hanker like me

lies and lies
gonna fall tonight
gonna fall /4x

it looks like everything went too far it went too far

tripping boy pushes e to speak about wasting our springs and losing our beliefs
oh nothing
losing our beliefs
oh nothing

but lies, my lies
go and never see
what’s yours and takes you forward
go and never see
lies, my lies
