Lady Antebellum, Ocean

how can someone stand so damn close and feel like they're worlds away I can see your sad story eyes so how do you have no words to say all I want is to fall in deeper then I've ever been why won't you let me

I can handle your heart so, help me here you are next to me
so much beauty at my feet all I want to do is swim but the wave keep crashing in
