G-Eazy, Sober (ft. Charlie Puth)

Oh, I know that I'll regret this when I'm sober but, every show I'm getting closer is it true that 80 proof is the reason I'm without you oh, I know that I'll regret when it's over story of my whole life
I just know that I'll regret this when it's over

I might regret this when tomorrow comes but the drunk nights are more fun than sober ones whit every shot, they're like : Ah, here Kobe comes But I got this bad bitch trying to throw me buns if I listened to my Unces, all them older ones They all talk about karma, how it slowly comes but, life is short enjoy it while you're young spend my bank account tonight and have to borrow funds it all started with a light glass now I'm asking: how long could tonight last?
Man, she had an eeh face with a tight ass if I had a shot less, then I might pass but, I can't believe we made it every night we celebrate it I live like Jim Morrison no telling where I'll take it I take her to room and I tell her: get maked

Oh, I know that I'll regret this when I'm sober
story of my whole life

I slipped up with mt ex and I smashed again stayed over, now she's about the get attached again walls builts up around, they come crashing in passed out at 6 AM, but she's up at 10 Doing this was not in my plans she got up and saw rubbers in the trash can hoop earnings, some bitch left on my nightstand cussed me out and stormed off like Alright then on both sides, that was bad for them why do people do things that be bad for them? say we done with these things then we asked for them when the Sun comes down, then we transform you can probably bet this by this time tomorrow, I'll probably regret this try but it all falls down like Tetris no telling where an 80 proof gets us

Oh, I know that I'll regret this when I'm sober
story of my whole life
