Lenny Kravitz, Here To Love

we must all united for we are one creation we must join the fight together we are strong we ust do what’s right nin every situation love each other’s lives as you would do your own

just think twice before you cast your stone
at someone’s soul
it’s their life
so the choice is theirs and theirs alone

we are not here to judge
we are here to love
there’s no room for hate
we are just one human race
we must rise above
we are here to love
there’s no time to waste anymore

we are here to love
