Luna, Thank You For Sending Me An Angel

sitting in your kitchen
sucking ice cubes
thinking we all understand
when it all comes rushing back
remember, remember, remember rolling on the carpet and pretending
wishing we could get away
standing in you closet and remembering
and it all comes rushing back
