Hailee Steinfeld, Afterlife

red eyes, like the smoke we rise as the candle’s burning low trust me in whatever you like are you plying whit me?

every time your name, it leaves my lips running still like words left unsaid fire in my veins dream deeply love remind me I am alive

will you love me when my heartbeat stops
when my heartbeat stops
will you stay mine?
will you promise me you’ll search for us
will you find me afterlife?
For better or for worse
will death be our last kiss, my love
will you find me afterlife?

my ear is buzzing
I ma trapped
no one’s coming immortality is bliss
you put me down
then put me on a pedestal now that I am gone you’re gonna miss me

remind me I am alive

will you stay mine?
will you find me afterlife?
For better or for worse
will death be our last kiss, my love
will you find me afterlife?

candles burning will you find?
will you find me afterlife?
will you love in the afterlife?
will you love in the afterlife?
will you love , will you love ?

will you stay mine?
will you find me afterlife?
For better or for worse
will death be our last kiss, my love
will you find me afterlife?
