

Armin Van Buuren, Feel Something (feat. Duncan Laurence)

It's right here in the bed
No, lights won't turn it off
Won't let me sleep just yet
I know, i know

It's right here in the shower
I don't wanna take it off
Don't wanna leave just yet
I know, i know

Pain is what happens with leftover love
And it's right here
Right here

Rip my heart out in the fallout
Killing me right now
But i
I'd rather feel something than be numb
I'd rather feel something

Went right through it
Right into it
Know it won't be easy
But i
I'd rather feel something than be numb
I'd rather feel something
