Jana Kramer, Why Ya Wanna

out of all the places in this little town you had to come walkin’ in here and sit down

I am hidin and hopin’ my face ain’t too red since we’ve been over I’ve been tryin’ like crazy to get you out of my head so why ya wanna show up in a old t-shirt that I love so why ya gotta tell me that I am lookin’ good, don’t know what you were thinkin’ you were doin’ movin’ in for a hug

like you don’t know I am comin’ unglued why ya wanna, why ya wanna make me keep wantin’ ya

I wish ya had on sunglasses to cover up those blue eyes I wish ya said something mean made me glad that you said goodbye why can’t you look off somewhere you catch me starin’ at you why can’t you be coold like ant old good ex would do

movin’ in for a hug
like you don’t know I am comin’ unglued
