Jhene Aiko, Summer 2020

And it feel like sometimes i cry
Cuz i feel so good to be alive
And there’s not a doubt inside my mind
That you’re still here
Right here by my side

I can’t wrap my head around what’s happening
I can’t sleep can’t get no peace of mind
Tryna beat the heat and summer madness
Only thoughts of you can get my by

And it feel like sometimes i cry
Cuz i feel so good to be alive
And there’s not a doubt inside my mind
That you’re still here
Right here by my side

Times are changing
Strange is getting stranger
Generations faced
We genocide
Tryna make my way through pain and anger
Then i look into my baby’s eyes

And it feel like sometimes i cry
Cuz i feel so good to be alive
When i fall in line with my Divine
I can see a side the sun shones more

Take some rain with my sunesine, sunesine
Take some rain with my sunesine
Take some rain with my sunesine

Take it easy, simple
Like summer time

Take it easy
Take it easy, simple
Take it easy

Take it easy, simple
Like summer time
