Nicole Cherry, Pop That

day by day
time is running away
I can’t stop what it’s started I can’t see what is coming in to my way
don’t stop to believe you’ve got nothing to prove when you’re making a mistake just get up don’t be afraid to say: Sorry!

that’s how you start an ordinary day in the moment of glory

yes i can
i can climb the highest mountains if I want
yes i can
yes i can
I can hate
I can love
and forgive If I want
yes i can
yes i can
I can get up and fight f it’s necessary and I cn do what I want with my life
yes i can
