K.Flay, High Enough

[Intro]
(Ohh, ohh)
(Ohh, ohh)

[Verse 1]
I don’t like anyone better than you, it’s true
I’d crawl a mile in a desolate place with the snakes, just for you
Oh I’m an animal hand me a tramadol gimme the juice
You are my citadel you are my wishing well my baby blue

[Pre-Chorus]
I used to like liquor to get me inspired
But you look so beautiful, my new supplier
I used to like smoking to stop all the thinking
But I found a different buzz
The world is a curse it’ll kill if you let it
I know they got pills that can help you forget it
They bottle it, call it medicine
But I don’t need drugs

[Chorus]
'Cause I’m already high enough
You got me you got me good
I’m already high enough
I only, I only, I only got eyes for you

[Verse 2]
Do you see anyone other than me?
Baby, please
I’ll take a hit of whatever you got
Maybe two, maybe three
Oh you’re phenomenal, feel like a domino, fall to my knees
I am a malady, you are my galaxy, my sweet relief

[Pre-Chorus]
I used to like liquor to get me inspired
But you look so beautiful, my new supplier
I used to like smoking to stop all the thinking
But I found a different buzz
The world is a curse it’ll kill if you let it
I know they got pills that can help you forget it
They bottle it, call it medicine
But I don’t need drugs

[Chorus]
'Cause I’m already high enough
You got me you got me good
I’m already high enough
I only, I only, I only got eyes for you

[Bridge]
(Ohh)
Don’t try to give me cold water
I don’t wanna sober up
All I see are tomorrows
Oh, the stars were made for us

[Chorus]
I’m already high enough
You got me you got me good
I’m already high enough
I only, I only, I only got eyes for you
(Ohh)
(I only got eyes for you)

(Ohh, ohh)
(I only, I only, I only got eyes for you)
